3. YES (Youth Empowerment Services) SYSTEM OF CARE | Josie Russell-Adkins

- Quarter 3 2018 data regarding Child and Adolescent Needs and Strengths (CANS), level of care was presented. Out of 1,300 CANS assessments, 19% were at level zero; 37% were at level 1; 15% were at a level 2; and 29% were at level 3.
- The Wraparound Coaching Pilot starts on July 1, 2019. The coaches support the care coordinators in Wraparound.
- Targeted Care Coordination training has started. Optum is providing the training through Relias. Target Care Coordination will now be taking referrals for Person Center Service Plans (PCSP). This is now a billable service through Optum.
- Person Center Plan (PCP) has officially been changed to Person Center Service Plan (PCSP).
- There is a YES screener designed to help non mental health professionals determine if they should refer a youth to mental health services. The screener is available on the YES website at <https://youthempowermentservices.idaho.gov>.
- Information was provided on the process regarding expired PCSP's.

4. PARENT NETWORK

- Parent Network will be having their annual workshop October.
- Regions throughout the start are in need of parent involvement.

5. PARTNERSHIP FOR SUCCESS (PFS) GRANT DISCUSSION

- Ashley Billman updated the Committee on the efforts of the Partnership for Success (PFS) grant.
- The PFS grant is sponsoring a Chukars game on September 4, 2019 to promote prevention of underage drinking. Additional information will be available soon.
- The next Prevention Subcommittee meeting is scheduled for July 8, at 11:00 a.m. at EIPH in the Community Health meeting room. If you have any questions, contact Ashley Billman (billmanadventures@gmail.com) or Marco Erickson (merickson@eiph.idaho.gov).

6. ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Chris Freeburne, IDHW-DBH, provided information on the Families First Prevention Services Act. He will continue to provide updates as they become available.
- Beginning next week, Community Youth in Action (CYA) will have a fireworks booth in the parking lot of Walmart on Utah Avenue in Idaho Falls and at Broulim's Supermarket in Shelley. Proceeds from the sales will be used to fund CYA activities.
- Brandi Daw provided an update on the BHC construction project. Beds in Idaho are still very limited. Their residential program will move within the next couple of weeks over to the new all girls wing.
- Shayne Boyle reports low census at the Juvenile Corrections Facility. They only have 234 in custody at this time. Monty Prow is the new Director and Scott Johnson is the new Deputy Director.
- July 5, 2019 is Mental Health Awareness Night with the Chukars. Join Optum to start the conversation around mental health and support local community resources.
- On July 27, 2019, Community Suicide Prevention (CSP) is holding a breakfast and walk/run at Freeman Park. Information will be posted on the EIPH's Facebook page.
- On September 12, 2019 at 6:30 p.m., CSP is holding a Suicide Survivor Memorial event at Community Park. More information to follow.
- Mimi Taylor attended the Community Conversations on re-entry. It was well attended and very informative.

8. ADJOURN

The meeting was adjourned at 11:17 a.m.

Next Meeting: Friday, July 19, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. at Eastern Idaho Public Health

The CMH Subcommittee's role is to ensure that the mission of the RBHB addresses the unique needs of the community for those under the age of 21 by providing awareness and support, addressing gaps and needs, making recommendations, and researching and developing ways to help and educate the community, children, youth, adolescents, and their families to the distinctive needs of the CMH population. These responsibilities are not limited to behavioral health concerns but also include education on the vast array of other factors that affect the lives of children and their families and involve partnering with the community to identify the gaps and needs within those respective communities.
