Training Conversation

Dustin Park

- Speaker
 - Introduction of Dr. Peter Langman
 - Perpetrators & Prevention – breaks down trainings into two categories
 - How to evaluate those who do these acts and why they do them, where this reason comes from.
 - Warning signs, how to recognize them, threat assessment, barrier to action-based on evidence-attacks that were not stopped
- Venue
- Media
 - Flier is almost done
 - Working on Paragraph to send to Debbie Critchfield, but also trying to present to her face to face. Dustin would like to hear directly from her that she is supportive of the event. John reviewed paragraph information and approves of it. Dustin reads the paragraph to share.
 - Press Release → Eastern Idaho Public Health could create the press release. Could Sheriff Hulse present a press release as well as other law enforcement agencies and super intendants.
 - In the press release can we show to the agencies that multiple community leaders are backing this training? Can we have a document in which we can collaborate on.
 - Who are the community leaders going to be for the press release? Law enforcement, county commissioners, superintendents,
- What are the costs?
- Who to invite?
 - Janet suggest to invite state safety officer with dept of ed – not sure on name. Janet also asking about which superintendents are on board-Dustin remembers representatives but not specific names. Amber suggest sending out a “media blast” to make a larger invite-Janet expresses worry about how the how to with such a media release would cause parents to react.
 - Have we brought these efforts to the Region 6 Superintendent meeting?
 - How can we be sure to share this message with our rural communities the day of the training? Can we YouTube or zoom the training?
- Educational credit/Agenda

the community, children, youth, adolescents, and their families to the distinctive needs of the CMH population. These responsibilities are not limited to behavioral health concerns but also include education on the vast array of other factors that affect the lives of children and their families and involve partnering with the community to identify the gaps and needs within those respective communities.
