Eastern Idaho Public Health Welcomes New Provider to Lemhi County

(Eastern Idaho) – Eastern Idaho Public Health (EIPH) is pleased to announce and introduce our new provider, Willow Griffith, FNP-C. Willow will be working in our Lemhi County office in Salmon, Idaho providing the following services: annual wellness exams, sports physicals, family planning & birth control, testing, counseling, & treatment of STDs, and breast & cervical cancer screenings. We accept most insurance plans, Medicaid, and Medicare.

Willow Griffith, FNP-C, graduated from Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff with a Bachelor's Degree in Biology and Chemistry Science and worked on plant and wildlife science projects across Arizona for many years. She went back to school to earn a Bachelor's in Nursing Science at Northern Arizona University and worked in Arizona's Verde Valley for a few years before moving to Salmon, Idaho to continue her career as an RN. She since graduated with a Master's degree in Nursing Science from Frontier Nursing University, an excellent program with a strong influence on women's and reproductive health.

In addition, June 27 is National HIV Testing Day. To recognize the importance of HIV testing, we will be offering free, rapid, and confidential HIV tests throughout the month of June at our Salmon, Idaho office (801 Monroe). Please call 208-756-2123 to schedule an appointment.
